Recovery International
Independent Studies of the Method

1996 - “Recovery Inc. as an Adjunct Treatment in an Era of Managed Care,” Psychiatric Services.

2000 – American Psychiatric Association recognizes Recovery’s contributions to the field with the Arnold L. van Ameringen Award in Psychiatric Rehabilitation.

2011 – Department of Psychiatry of University of Illinois at Chicago -- A 72-page evaluation of Recovery International Group Meetings showing that the RI method decreased the severity of mental health symptoms and increased mental health recovery. (Executive Summaries and full copies of reports are available upon request.)